

HEADINGTON RYE
OXFORD

Teacher of Politics and History, part time (with possibility of Head of Politics)

Start date: September 2026

Salary: In line with Headington Rye Oxford Teaching Scale

Headington Rye Oxford is a vibrant and welcoming school set in 23 acres of playing fields and grounds on the outskirts of Oxford. In an environment where individuals come first, Headington Rye Oxford is renowned for its commitment to academic excellence, pastoral support and an impressive range of extra-curricular opportunities.

We are seeking to appoint a dynamic and inspirational Teacher of Politics to ensure the continued success of this popular Sixth Form subject at the school. The successful applicant will have a good honours degree, excellent subject knowledge and a proven ability to promote critical and creative debate in the classroom. Applicants are also welcome to indicate interest in the role of Head of Politics.

The postholder will teach Politics in the Sixth Form and History more widely across the School.

Headington Rye teachers benefit from an excellent CPD structure, and we therefore also welcome applications from confident and well-qualified ECTs with relevant backgrounds and experience.

If you are interested in applying for this position please refer to our website:

www.headingtonrye.org for a job specification and application form. Please send your completed application form to recruitment@headingtonschool.com along with a covering letter.

- Closing date: Monday 2nd March 2026 at 12 noon
- Interviews: week commencing Monday 9th March 2026

Headington Rye Oxford is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. Applicants must be able to provide evidence of having the right to live and work in the UK and must undergo child protection screening, including checks with past employers and DBS and barred lists checks. The school expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Headington Rye Oxford is an equal opportunities employer.
